1	ummm... they got rid of the crooked cops?	7/22/2016 1:18 PM
2	Nothing	7/22/2016 10:47 AM
3	Not much	7/21/2016 6:37 PM
4	Schools	7/21/2016 6:29 PM
5	Our Town Manager is doing a great job. He knows municipal government is working for Ashland	7/21/2016 5:50 PM
6	mostly everything is well except facilities, Mindess school condition, beautification of road and public areas	7/21/2016 4:12 PM
7	Seems like we've had a couple of good town managers	7/21/2016 4:01 PM
8	Financial management	7/21/2016 2:16 PM
9	The Town is not well run	7/16/2016 9:24 PM
10	The people are starting to stand up for themselves and demand an open and transparent government. The two newer selectmen are on the forefront of this movement. They have been listening to the public more carefully and also appear to not have "pre-voted" on decisions. That is terrific!	7/15/2016 4:29 PM
11	Building department,because the rules and regulations are very cut and dry.	7/11/2016 7:42 PM
12	Adequate notice is given for the public to attend meetings and voice their opinions. In general, I feel that folks in positions of power understand what is important to the people of Ashland.	7/11/2016 4:44 PM
13	Generally, I believe our town government (paid and elected officials) are working to improve the transparency of decision-making.	7/11/2016 2:36 PM
14	Communication to the residence has improved.	7/8/2016 10:24 AM
15	I believe town government as a whole is working well	7/8/2016 9:37 AM
16	broad question - not sure how to answer that. Getting forms from the town clerk goes smoothly. Library programs are well run. Rec Center programs are also great and easy to access. None of those are really "town government." The BOS seems more cohesive and productive than in the past. The Finance Committee seems on point and are working far more collaboratively with the school department than in the past. The Board of Health is a mess. The Capital Improvement Committee is defunct. That's concerning.	7/8/2016 9:35 AM
17	The town manager and that's all.	7/7/2016 10:20 AM
18	Not sure, I'm not really involved in town government much.	7/6/2016 10:06 AM
19	It seems like people in the town are really involved, and that the town government encourages that, which is a great thing.	7/4/2016 3:51 PM
20	Professional staff...because they are just that - professional.	7/2/2016 6:43 PM
21	School Board, Selectmen, town elections. These basically seem to work as intended.	7/2/2016 2:11 PM
22	I think the schools work in general	7/2/2016 12:06 PM
23	I think that the current Board of Selectmen and the current Town Manager are working well. There seems to be more cohesive goals and objectives.	7/2/2016 11:26 AM
